STOCKS.

Stocks opened yesterday with a decline in Belcher. The only Comstocks to develop any strength were Bullion, Chollar and Potosi, there being an important advance in the first named. Ophir, Mexican, Union Con. and Sierra Nevada were all off from Saturday's closing rates, but the depression was fractional. Between sessions there was some improvement, Potosi advancing to 4 1/2, Chollar to 6 and Belcher to 11. There was not much change in the north-end stocks. In the second session Union Con. and Sierra Nevada were weak, as was also Belcher, but Mexican, Ophir, East & Belcher, Gould & Curry, Hale & Norcross, Chollar, Potosi and Bullion were strong at advanced rates.

Following are the latest street quotations:
Belcher, 9 3/4, 9 1/2, 9 1/4; Crown Point, 3 3/4, 3.70; Hale and Norcross, 6 1/2; Union, 38b, 38 1/2; Gould and Curry, 5 1/2; Sierra Nevada, 22b, 22 1/2; Julia, 1.20b, 1 1/4; California, 3.55b, 3.65b; Justice, 1.15b; Scorpion, 3 1/2; Belcher, 9 1/2, 9 1/4; Benton, 2 1/2; Mexican, 15 1/2; Imperial, 70s; Bullion, 5 1/2, 5 1/4; Ophir, 18b, 18 1/4; Mexican, 15 1/2; Chollar, 5 1/2; Potosi, 4.30b; Savage, 5 1/4; Sierra Nevada, 22 1/2; Con. It was pay day with the V. & T. R. R. yesterday.

John I. Ginn, of the Bodie Standard is in the city.

N. Bennett put a bullet through the arm of John Waters in Virginia City last Saturday night.

There is an uncalled for message in the Western Union Telegraph office for Mrs. C. N. Brewster.

Col. Wood, otherwise known as Billy Wood, is now on the Comstock, and is supposed to be getting things in shape for a Billy Sharon boom.

WAS WILHELMJ DRUNK?

EVIDENCE THAT HE WAS WHEN HE APPEARED IN CARSON—AND NOBODY KNEW THE DIFFERENCE.

There are hundreds of persons in Carson who went away from Wilhelmj's concert last week impressed with a sort of vague sense of disappointment. They expected to be overcome with astonishment the instant Wilhelmj touched the strings of his "rare old Stradivarius violin." They had supposed that the birds would sing, the winds sigh and the waves of old ocean break upon the sandy beach, through Wilhelmj's fiddle. Nothing of the kind occurred however. The APPEAL reporter thought that he had heard equally as good and ventured the assertion in a crowd, but all within hearing looked upon him with such expressions of pity that he did not dare argue the matter. One man told him plainly that he was a "consummate fool" and didn't know what fiddling was when he heard it. On all sides he heard praise heaped upon Wilhelmj and concluding that fifty peoples' opinion was better than one man's he rushed back to the office and wrote a glowing endorsement of the performance. Next day he met a man who asked, "now on the dead square did you like that fiddling?"

"Can't say it met my expectations."
"It fell way below mine, but, heavens! I wouldn't dare say so except confidentially."

THE FIDDLER DRUNK.

It has been whispered about for several days past that Wilhelmj was under the influence of —to make a long story short he was drunk at the concert on Monday night. This would have been apparent to most people when he came out and spread his legs apart like the Colossus of Rhodes, in order to hold his position on the floor. This attitude was alluded to as "grand" by numerous female admirers who thought it gave him an appearance of strength and firmness. Several experts explained that certain passages in Beethoven's Sonata in D could not be played without stretching the legs apart.

WILHELMJ'S REMORSE.

After the performance the great artist was found in his dressing room with his head resting upon his hand. He was filled with remorse and genuine remorse too, at the idea that he had not given a satisfactory performance. "Vat vill ze peebles think! za vill say, he is not ze arteest zat he claim. My reputation is roomed for two year to come. I feel like I say to every one, 'there mine friend take ze mooney back, I vill not have it.'" At this point he was checked up by Manager Preddy who thought the great artist was showing premonitory symptoms of insanity. "I never was so drunk since dot Liederkranz bal masque in Berlin twenty-two years ago."

HOW IT HAPPENED.

It appears that the day before he had been invited to dine with his fellow countryman, Deidesheimer, Supt. of the Hale & Norcross. He received the assurance from "Dides," as they call him, that on account of the high altitude champagne lost all its intoxicating qualities, and a gallon could be drunk with impunity. Acting upon this hint the fiddler stored away the better part of a gallon, with the most unhappy results. Some kindly disposed friend suggested a tapering off on Comstock whiskey which only prolonged the affair so as to give Carson the benefit of it. It was rather unfortunate for Wilhelmj and his audience, but he did so well that all forgive him when the evil and fascinating associations of the Comstock are taken into consideration. The only wonder is that a man who dined with Deidesheimer could fiddle for the rest of the week.

AN EXCUSABLE STATE.

The fact of the matter is that few public men can stay on the Comstock a week without getting drunk. The high altitude does the business, and a man not accustomed to it finds that a single glass of wine is about all he can stand. Nobody lays the little episode upon Wilhelmj, and if he ever comes back, the mantle of sage brush charity will completely envelope him. The only regret that Carson has, is that it was not allowed the honor of supplying the wine which threw the great artist down.

A DRY GOODS DREAM.—A woman who goes into M. Cohn's emporium drifts off into a dream of rare and beautiful feminine finery. She sees the best products of foreign looms piled up on the counters, laces, draperies, illusions and elegant toilette materials, such as only the rarest skill can produce and which women of taste admire. The secret of the success of this house lies in the fact that M. Cohn knows how to select the best and is never imposed upon by the eastern houses who work off their inferior goods on inexperienced persons.

CONVICTED OF BURGLARY.—Thomas Lovejoy, the man who some weeks ago took fourteen coats from Lillienfeld's clothing store, was tried for burglary in the District Court yesterday. The evidence was much the same as adduced before Justice Cary's Court at the preliminary examination, and he was found guilty by the jury. It is the opinion of many that the man is in a demented state.

TWO CASES TO BE APPEALED.—The case of Lyon County vs. the V. & T. R. R. for back taxes, and won by the county, will be appealed by the Railroad Company. The case of Meyer vs. the V. & T. R. R. and won by the Railroad Company will be appealed by Meyer.

THE CITY TRUSTEES

TALK OF DISINCORPORATING THE CITY OF CARSON—NEW MINOR ORDINANCES PASSED—BILLS, ETC.

The City Trustees met last night and accepted the resignation of William Ingraham, special policeman at Winston's saloon, and Geo. Sproule was appointed in his place. Mr. Winston pays the salary of the new officer as before. The subject of disincorporating the city was discussed, but no conclusion arrived at. There will be but $95 in the Treasury when bills now due are paid. The running expenses of the city average $1200 a month, and in consequence of the city tax from one dollar to fifty cents on a hundred, the money in the Treasury is falling short and the city has now but between $400 and $500 a month to run on for the next nine months.

NEW MINOR ORDINANCE.

An ordinance No. 54, prohibiting children and minors from carrying deadly weapons was passed. No person under 16 can carry a dirk knife, bowie knife, sword cane, billy, slung-shot, revolver, pistol, gun or bomb. The punishment for the offense is a fine of $50 or twenty-five days in the County Jail.

BILLS ALLOWED.

The following bills were allowed: State Prison, $9; E. B. Rail, $3; county janitor, $50; Alex. Leport, $10; Lloyd Hill, $206; J. E. Mack, $25; W. Riddler, $80; W. A. Hawthorne, $100; Carson Water Co., $119; W. B. Mann, $25; E. D. Sweeney, $40 R. L. Duncan, $100; Nevada Tribune, $10; D. Circe, $42; Goodyear Rubber Co., $307; F. Craven, $12; Geo. Thaxter, $14; J. W. Carpenter, $7; C. E. Bray, $68; J. B. Cornack, $42; V. & T. R. Co., $8; E. C. French, $5; T. Coffin, $20; Andrew Jenks, $7 50.

THE FEMALE WOOD CHOPPER.—It is an impressive and curious spectacle to the average man, to watch a woman chop wood; so much so, in fact, that he will suppress his natural desire to perform the work himself, fold his hands behind him with a cast iron clasp, and let her do it. She first scrambles over the entire wood pile, and selects the sticks that look best crooked and knotty; these she places in a systematic row, and then seizes the ax. The first blow strikes fair and square, and sends the blade well into the wood—so well that it requires some minutes of twisting and pulling to get it out—and she hastily tries again; but this time the distance is miscalculated, in some way, and the blow only sends the loose chips flying. Now she grows interested in her work, and gathering herself up, descends with a mighty whack, and chips off about a quarter of an inch from the side of the stick. This is exasperating, and she just starts in and bangs away promiscuously, the blows falling thick and fast. At last, by some accident, the ax splits the stick, and the largest piece flies up and strikes her full in the face. She slugs the ax across the shed, makes a few remarks about the men around the house and Chinamen in general, and then seeks what consolation she may find in the arnica bottle, and the assurances from members of the family, that she don't look fit to be seen. After a while the flesh around her eye begins to turn to a lovely shade of navy blue, and suggestions of raw meat, vinegar and brown paper, bay rum and Cheney's own liniment, are showered upon her from all directions, free gratis. For a week after this, any man who has a proper idea of what is good for himself, will preserve an utter silence regarding anything concerning wood.

THREE VULCANS.—McLaren, Giebean and Jefferson, branny Vulcans of the old school, have opened a blacksmith shop adjoining the V. & T. R. R. freight depot, where they are ready to do light and heavy work of all descriptions. When it comes to a scientific shoeing of that noble animal, the horse, this solid firm takes no back seat for any one on earth. Their advertisement appears in another column, and will repay perusal.

THE TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—Dr. D. Banks McKenzie opened his anti-rum campaign last night at the Opera House to a good-sized audience and delivered an address. The temperance people were very enthusiastic, and $42 was subscribed on the spot. There will be another meeting to-night.

SAD.—An attempt was recently made by some physicians to resuscitate the corpses of two men hung for murder. A few days ago a young lady of Carson learning that the experiment had failed, heaved a deep sigh as she reflected that her chances for getting a man were diminished by two.

Mr. Bunker, the proprietor of the Stock Report, passed through the city on Sunday. He had been out to Bodie and Candelaria and looked as if he was glad to get back. He said the trip was somewhat exhausting, but the mines looked big.

Yesterday afternoon an argument for a new trial in the case of Mrs. J. P. Hixon vs. Pixley & McConnell, was made. Dixon, of the firm of Lindsay & Dixon, appeared for Mrs. Hixon, and General Clark for Pixley & McConnell.

Mr. A. Marston, of the Opera House, desired all who subscribed for tickets to the ball and raffle of the $200 seal skin saccue which comes off on the 10th, to settle up to-day.

Mr. M. Clesovich is getting up an extra supper for the ball to-morrow night. He has accommodations for thirty couples at a time.

Two hundred pieces new choice prints.

An invoice of E. C. Burt's celebrated kid boots.

Novelties in buttons, hairpins, fancy goods, ruchings, etc., etc.

Irish poplins worth $2.50 at 75 cents per yard.

Irish poplins worth $1 at 50 cents per yard.

OLCOVICH BROTHERS.

WE CAN'T TALK

Without showing the condition of our teeth. Every laugh exposes them. In order not to be ashamed of them let us use that standard dentifrice, SOZODONT, which is sure to keep them white and spotless. No tartar can encrust them, no cauter effect the enamel, no species of decay infect the dental bone, if SOZODONT is regularly used. It is a botanical preparation, and its beneficial effects on the teeth and gums are marvelous, as it removes all discolorations, and renders the gums hard and rosy. m7

ATTENTION!—The greatest wonder yet discovered in medicine is Mrs. Dr. Howe's celebrated rheumatism, neuralgia and toothache cures. Would you rather suffer the pain of having a tooth drawn than buy a bottle of Mrs. Dr. Howe's toothache medicine? Mother should not be without it for their infants. A few drops in a little sweetened water to swab a teething baby's mouth will instantly relieve the little sufferer. The medicine does not canterize, and is very pleasant. Sold by all druggists. mh7

PROFESSOR LANGER'S MUSIC CLASS.—Prof. Langer, the well known leader of Piper's Orchestra, has started a music class in Carson. He has already received a number of scholars from the best families in the city, and his thorough methods of instruction give the best of satisfaction. He gives vocal and instrumental instructions and teaches on the piano and violin. He will give lessons on Wednesday of each week. Orders can be left at the APPEAL office. f21-1m

THE ONE PRICE DRY GOODS STORE.—All the divorce suits started in Carson arise from the fact that husbands are driven nearly crazy by the extravagance of their wives. By trading at M. Cohn's these troubles can be happily avoided. He has now on hand a new supply of ladies' cloaks, childrens' woolen goods and in fact everything that a woman wants in the shape of clothing. His is the original one price dry goods store and he defies competition.

Don't lose your teeth. A few drops of Mrs. Howe's celebrated toothache medicine will save them.

WANTED.—A small, unfurnished house, situated west of Carson street. Apply at this office.

THE GENUINE Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the Liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia, and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

ACUE AND FEVER.
No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar-coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid with the impression, McLANE'S LIVER PILLS. Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

The Bitters invariably remedy yellowness of complexion and whites of the eyes, pains in the right side and under the right shoulder-blade, furrowed tongue, high colored urine, nausea, vertigo, dyspepsia, constipation, heaviness of the head, mental prostration, and every other manifestation or accompaniment of a disordered condition of the liver. The stomach, bowels and kidneys also experience their regulating and tonic influence. For sale by all druggists and dealers generally. m8
